ARTISTS' EXHIBITION

THE KANSAS CITY ART INSTITUTE

THE KANSAS CITY ART INSTITUTE—AND U. S. EPPERSON HALL
4415 Warwick Boulevard, Kansas City, Missouri

FOREWORD

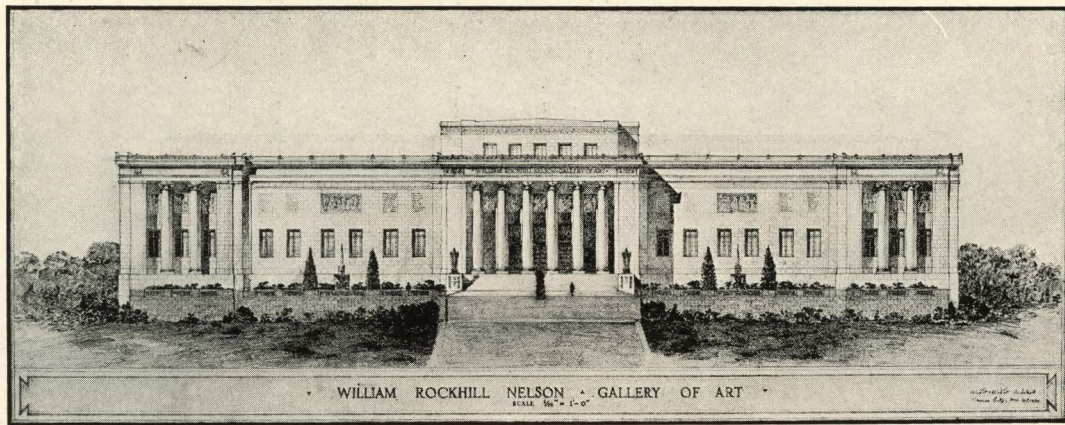

IT IS reasonable to expect that as the number of works submitted for consideration increases, the standard must be raised. The number of entries for the 1931 Midwestern exhibition exceeded twelve hundred—the hanging space of the Institute is limited to about three hundred. For this reason, and the fact that an exhibition to be of any credit either to the artist admitted or the Institute, the standard should be as high as is possible to attain, only two hundred and five works were accepted. When the William Rockhill Nelson and Mary Atkins museum is completed we hope to see assembled in Kansas City a national competitive exhibition, such as is held each year in Chicago and other large centers.

The jury for the selection of the 1931 exhibition also made the awards of gold, silver and bronze medals given by The Kansas City Art Institute.

The works on display are for sale and at reasonable prices. The Institute will be glad to advise any one interested.

Price list at the desk.

Members of the Institute will please bring their catalogues when visiting the exhibition.
